1 Answers similar to the following will be acceptable: 1 He hears Heathcliff's story from his housekeeper, Nelly Dean. 2 He was found in Liverpool, and was probably foreign, but we do not know where he came from. 3 Mr Earnshaw brought Heathcliff home because he was starving and homeless. 4 Heathcliff's relationship with Hindley was very bad. Hindley was jealous and often hit Heathcliff. 5 Heathcliff and Cathy were best friends from the beginning. They used to spend all their time together on the moors. 6 Heathcliff and Cathy wanted to see how the young Lintons spent their Sundays to see if Edgar and Isabella were punished as much as they were. 7 They saw Edgar and Isabella alone in a beautiful room. They were arguing about a pet dog. 8 A dog had bitten her ankle while she and Heathcliff were trying to run away. She stayed there until it healed. 9 Before she went away, Cathy had been wild and naughty. When she came back, she had turned into a young lady, with expensive clothes which she was careful not to get dirty.

2 1 Isabella didn't know how ill Cathy was. (Nelly believes that she would not have run away if she had known.) 2 Edgar does look after Cathy and is patient with her. (Nelly says no mother could have looked after her child more patiently.) 3 Isabella does care that she has upset her brother. 4 Isabella has been unhappy at Wuthering Heights since she got there. 5 Isabella is not free to leave Wuthering Heights (She says she tried to once, but does not dare to again.) 6 Cathy does not recognise Edgar before she dies. (Nelly says she did not regain enough consciousness to recognise Edgar or miss Heathcliff.)

- 1 1 He says that Heathcliff enjoys destroying the people that he hates and that he would hate Catherine because she is his daughter. 2 Catherine had led a sheltered life, protected from anything bad so she did not know that anyone could be so wicked. 3 She was secretly writing a note to Linton. 4 He told her Linton was dying of a broken heart and that he thought she hated him because she didn't go and see him any more. 5 Linton was in a bad mood, whining and complaining and he seemed weak and ill. 6 She told Linton that his mother had left his father. 7 He told her that her mother had not loved her father, but had been in love with his father, Heathcliff. 8 Hareton was furious because Catherine and Linton made fun of him and they didn't spend any time with him. 9 He waited for Catherine by the gate looking sorry and he tried to give her a puppy. 10 He agreed to let Linton come to the Grange.
